GERMANY INCENSED.

An extraordinary situation has arisen in the rapid developement of the European crisis. The late editions of the London and Paris papers yesterday published an elaborate version, obviously from an official source, of the programme of the proposed conference, on which Great Britain, Russia, and France agreed. This important announcement appeard in Paris under a London date and in London under a Paris date.

Scarcely had it become public when the British foreign office announced that it was inaccurate.

These repudiations were made after the respective foreign minister had received visits from Germany's representatives.

What has happened is precisely this: Assent to the congress was obtained in principle from all the powers. Thereupon, Great Britain, Russia and France drafted a programme of the questions to be considered. France was the only one which consulted Germany during the past four days while this work was progressing at the British foreign office. It was intended, of course, to submit this scheme at once to all the signatory powers, but it was prematurely made public yesterday, how, nobody knows.

Germany, for some reason, is angry at thus being temporarily ignored, and a serious hitch has occurred. It remains to be seen what the consequences will be.

The triple alliance is now faced by a new dreibund, which is more powerful than any international combination ever created. This news does not make for harmony among the powers upon Balkan questions.

Bussia has definately decided to seek the sincere friendship of Turkey. She expects to secure the right of passing through the Dardanelles with Turkey's full consent.

Do not let anyone tell you that something else is just as good as DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills because there isn't anything just as good. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

ENGLAND'S UNEMPLOYED.

The recent demonstration by the unemployed in Great Britain brought about one result in London yesterday rather out of the ordinary; this was the issuing of a writ against William James Thorne social democratic member, for inciting to a breach of the peace, by making a speech in which he advised the unemployed to "rush" the baker shops rather than starve.

A large body of the unemployed marched yesterday from Notthingham to London. Serious riots were avoided in Sheffield only when the mayor announced the sum of $500,000 would be devoted to relief work.

Albert V. Grayson, socialist member from Yorkshire, tried to raise a debate in the House of Commons yesterday afternoon on the unemployed question. The speaker ruled him out of order. Mr. Grayson then denounced the members for not succoring the starving thousands on the streets of London and defied the speaker.

The speaker then instructed the sergeant-at-arms to remove the recalcitrant socialist, whereupon Mr. Grayson withdrew his remark and said, amid the jeers of his colleagues:

"I leave this house with the greatest pleasure."

BAR EXAMINATIONS.

For the purpose of further expediting the work of bar examinations, the Virginia Court of Appeals has materially amended its rule on this subject. The day of examination at Wytheville has been changed from Friday to Wednesday and hereafter will be the third Wednesday after the first Tuesday in June. Applicants are required to file their applications with the secretary of the court (instead of the clerk, as heretofore) for the Richmond examination on or before the first day of November and for the Wytheville examination on or before June 15th, and also to deposit a fee of $2.50 to cover cost of examination and license. Application papers must be renewed every two years should the applicant not pass an examination within that time.

BRYAN ATTACKS CANNON.

Wm. J. Bryan closed his three days' speaking yesterday in his home state with a large meeting at Plattsmouth, last night, and said he felt that Nebraska could be safely counted in the democratic column this year by a larger majority than he received in 1896.

Speaking began early yesterday morning and continued throughout the day. More than 20 stops were made.

His addresses were more aggressive than they have been during the week. At Tecumseh he was vehement in his denunciation, among other things, saying of Mr. Cannon:

"It used to be said of a noted criminal lawyer that a burglar never entered a house to commit burglary without first making inquiry as to the health of this lawyer, and no man in Congress who plans a raid against the American people does so without first getting a promise of recognition from Mr. Cannon, speaker of the House. He is backed by every predatory corporation in this country."

OYSTER SEASON BRISK.

Cooler weather has increased activity among fishermen and oystermen on the lower Potomac. The gasoline engine is fast taking the place of sail power and in consequence men can do a better days work than heretofore. It is estimated, that the time saved by installing power in the dredging boats will enable a man to catch at least 10 more bushels of oysters a day than heretofore. The catch of oysters so far is said to be the best for several years and the oyster houses are preparing for a busy season. The catch of fish is also on the increase.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

FRIDAY EVENING, OCT. 16, 1908.

"ALL I asxes," says the crasksman, "is to be left alone; why don't the perlice let a man have rest and quiet." This is not used to compare the position of the banker and his high and responsible business calling with the crackman, but to emphasize the touchy disposition of the captains of finance, and the arrogance some of them occasionally display, and the demand to be let alone in a seeming determination to dictate the fiscal policies of state and nation. Mr. Henry Clews, the Wall street magnate, was in Baltimore early in the week and delivered an address and at the same hour Governor Crothers, of Maryland, was also addressing the people at Westminister in that state. The difference in their views, one a man of great wealth, the other a poor man but the governor of a great state, is thus explained. In assailing Mr. Bryan's government guarantee theory Mr. Clews made the following statements:

"The government guarantee of bank deposits * * * is unsound in principle and fraught with great danger, both to the government and the business of the country.

"It would, therefore, be one of those blunders that are worse than crimes.

"It would be a long step toward socialism, and socialism is antagonistic to free government and individual independence.

"A guarantee system would destroy the incentive for sound banking and place a premium upon unsound banking so that the reckless and inefficient banker would be on the same footing with the prudent and experienced banker, all of which is unthinkable.

"As a radical measure it would be entitled to rank with the '16 to 1' silver heresy, which was happily exploded and discredited in time to prevent its enactment by Congress."

This is all very fine, but Mr. Clews is not a witness without bias in a case where he has an interest. Governor Crothers speaking said.

"There is nothing that I have observed in the platform of the democratic party that should excite any apprehension or alarm upon the part of the people. For instance, one plank in the platform, known as the guarantee deposit plank, has excited some interest, and the distinguished governor of New York, in his speech delivered in Baltimore, goes quite at lenght into the harm that might result in the application of that principle, but I do not believe that he will find among intelligent democrats or republicans anywhere any person who would dispute the principle that it would be wise and prudent to secure depositors in the banks.

"Now, it is quite easy, instead of meeting the issue squarely, whether or not the principle is a proper one, to drift off into the sounding of alarm bells as to what might possibly happen, if put into practical operation along given lines. If the members of the democratic party were to follow the example set by Governor Hughes in his reference to the guarantee deposit plank and draw on their imaginations all the possible injuries that might result from the application of the postal savings bank plank in the platform of the governor's own party we might draw a picture before which the governor's groundless apprehensions would sink into insignificance. We might say that the postal savings bank plank if adopted would mean that the government is going into the banking business pure and simple. We might say that it would lead to the gathering up of the funds from the people in the community and then under favored governmental manipulation would be deposited not in the community from which they came, but the details of the law might be so regulated as to carry all the money out of these several communities to the great financial institutions and banks of New York, and thus put a most menacing power in the hands of these great colossal money institutions of Wall street. The fact, as Mr. Hughes states, that national bank failures are rare in this section of the union is not sufficient reason why we ought not to provide for the possibility of such things in the future. The mere fact that my house has never burned down would hardly be a satisfactory reason why I should not secure insurance on it."

Maryland's governor here tersely puts Mr. Clews's claims to shame. Strange as it may seem the correspondents on Mr. Bryan's train commented on the fact that more attention was paid in New Jersey to his reference to the guarantee deposit plan, than to other parts of Mr. Bryan's speech.

COL W. F. TUCKER, quartermaster general of the United States army, was recently arrested charged with deserting his wife, a daughter of the late Gen. John A. Logan. At the time of his arrest he was accompanied by a woman with whom it is said he has been living. Mrs. Logan, when told of the arrest said she and her daughter had borne the "outrageous treatment" of Col. Tucker up to this time in silence except that they had appealed to the War Department to have him court-martialed. Continuing she said:

For some reason the War Department will not take up a case like this against an officer. They have attempted to force us to bring divorce proceedings against him, but that we will never do. I want to have the world know about this disgraceful conduct, that other poor women who have been saddened by the conduct of their husbands in the Philippines may have some protection. In civil life such things could not go on, but in the army it is different."

This is a severe arraignment of the American army, but many believe it is too true, as Mrs. Logan speaks by the card. But that "such things" can "go on" in the army that would not be permitted in civil life, is a charge that demands prompt and rigid investigation and summary punishment to all guilty parties. It is an open secret that the treatment of the Filipino women by both officers and men of the American army is a sin and a shame and has brought reproach upon the United States as a supposedly christian country. Now that the wives of these men are becoming aware of how they are being wronged and are taking the matter up, it is hoped that a reformation may be brought about.

SECRETARY OF WAR LUKE WRIGHT will speak in Norfolk the latter part of October. He is scheduled to speak in Richmond on the 26th and it is probable that he will go to Norfolk on the 27th. His address, of course, will be in the interest of the republican national ticket, and of Mr. Groner, the G. O. P. candidate for Congess from that district. Gen. Wright was once a stanch democrat but deserted his party and became a "gold bug." Then he seized at the bait of office thrown out by the republicans and swallowed the hook, line and sinker. He is now seeking to make converts to his new faith among his own people of the south. Can he succeed?

THE resumption of work at the Philadelphia mint, practically at full capacity, shows that the prospect of the election of Bryan and Kern and a democratic House of Representatives is not having the effect of arresting the resumption of business activity. Director of the Mint Leach admitted today that the demand for subsidiary silver, which is always a sure indication of great business activity, had become so keen that the mints would have to hustle from this on to meet it.

SPEAKER CANNON is not likely to be one of the campaign orators in New York. It became known yesterday that the campaign managers are uncertain how voters would receive him, particularly were he to make his stumping tour those as fiery as it has been in some other parts of the country. For this reason it has been arranged to call off the Cannon programme, and unless the speaker himself should interpose some vigorous objection he will not speak in New York.

From Washington.

Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.

Washington, Oct. 16.

The Navy Department today announced that plans are being prepared for a cruise of the Pacific fleet to the west coast of South America, leaving Magadalena bay on the completion of the battle practice this fall, visiting the ports of Panama, Callao, Coquimbo and Talcahuano, returning in time for the spring record practice on the North American coast, and then proceeding to Californian ports.

It is stated here that the Standard Oil case, the one involving the $29,000,000 fine, will not be reached in the U. S. Circuit Court this week.

An unusual number of changes in the diplomatic corps stationed at the Capital are scheduled to occur this winter as the result of death, resignation, transfer, and, in at least one case, removal.

Today's cabinet meeting lasted over two hours and a half. It is understood that the greater part of the session was devoted to a discussion of the political situation throughout the country. New York and Ohio still appear to be the pivotal states in the campaign, according to the best advices.

A shaft of granite to the memory of Brig. Gen. Theodore J. Wint, Pennsylvania's favorite soldier, was today unveiled at the Arlington National Cemetery with appropriate ceremonies, in which H. M. Edwards and Maj. Gen. J. Franklin Bell, chief of staff, U. S. A. participated. Miss Pabst, of Wilkesbarre, a niece of the dead soldier drew the veil. Gen. Wint had a long and honorable service in the army, from the beginning of the civil war through the Spanish American war, and later with the army of Cuban Pacification in 1906 and 1907.

D. E. Thompson, Ambassador to Mexico called on the president today to say good bye. He will leave in two weeks for his post of duty.

Although conceding that there will be a falling off in the labor vote in Pennsylvania this election, Senator Knox told the president today that a personal investigation on his part convinced him that there was no truth in the report of serious disaffection. The senator has agreed to deliver two speeches in his state, one on Tuesday night at the Academy of Music in Philadelphia and the other in Pittsburg on the night of the 30th and declares that there it no doubt of Representative Dalzell's returning to Congress.

The question of jurisdiction of the Interstate Commerce Commission over water carriers is being argued today at a hearing granted representatives of railroad and steamship lines who contend the commission has no power to regulate the rate on steamship lines for foreign ports. In a ruling on May 8, the commission held that a water carrier to foreign ports could not join with a railroad in making a through rate on passengers and freight, which has been appealed.

The receipts of the government are falling behind the income by from two to three million dollars a day and the president is anxious to strike a fair balance before he retires from office on March 4.

That co-education in at least one sense is a success was proved yesterday at Alton Ill., when seven co-ed freshmen of Shurtleff College gave Raymond Carr, a member of the sophomore class, a hazing he will not soon forget. ## Today's Telegraphic News

Ravages of Forest Fires.

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 16.—Alpena dispatches say that Millersburg, a town of 850 population, has been completely destroyed by fire and the whereabouts of the inhabitants are unknown. Two relief trains from Alpena were forced to turn back by the flames. The whole of northeastern Michigan is burning in spots and grave fears are felt for several thousand people. All hope for the people of Metz has been given up here.

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 16.—Word has reached here today from Millersburg, Mich., in the northern timber country, that the town of Metz has been entirely wiped out by forest fires, and that there is danger that a train load of refugees, numbering nearly 200, from the town, have been entrapped by the fire.

The fires are now raging in four counties and millions of dollars worth of property is being destroyed.

Detroit, Oct. 16.—Already 14 women and children are known to have been burned in the relief train out of Metz. Women and children were burned to death in a box car. The total list of dead is beyond conjecture. One refugee who got through on the relief train from Alpena says only a few escaped from Metz.

A shift of wind to the northeast has saved Alpena from the fires.

The flames are now under control, but several buildings were burned. Men who worked all night fighting the flames collapsed this morning when the change in wind came, and slept in the streets, on sidewalks and in vacant lots.

The forest fires have reached Alpena, a city of 20,500 on the shore of Lake Huron, and are inside the city limits. All business has been suspended and the entire population has turned out to fight the flames which are sweeping in from the northwest.

Cheboygan, on the Straits of Mackinac, of 15,000 inhabitants, is also seriously threatened. Meagre reports are drifting in from the burning district, but at least four small towns with a total population of 2,000 have been totally destroyed.

No trace of the derailed train out of Metz has been secured, and it appears certain that it has been destroyed, with two hundred people. Frantic efforts are being made at Alpena to reach Millersburg, which is still burning.

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., Oct. 16.—Forest fires are again raging around this city and early this morning appeared at the city limits. The fires are worse than those of several weeks ago and the town of Brimley is being wiped out and several others are in danger. There is no sign of rain to relieve the situation. The smoke over the St. Mary's river is so thick that navigation has been abandoned.

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 16.—Forest fires are again carrying death and destruction through northern Michigan.

Four towns are already reported wiped out by flames, with heavy loss of life, while scores of other towns and cities are menaced.

A dispatch from Millersburg says: "Seventeen men, women and children were burned to death when the train which left Metz, Wednesday afternoon, to take people out of the fire which destroyed the town, ran into a burned-out culvert and was unable to proceed. It was trapped on all sides by raging flames and cremated. Fifteen burned skulls were found in a steel gondola."

From Caro, Mackinac City, Gladwin, Standish, Traverse City, and Lansing come reports of forest fires in the country around the cities.

A conflagration has broken out on the upper peninsula. Forester City, which is the one menaced, is again reported in danger.

The town of Brimley, 15 miles west of the Soo is again threatened with destruction. Flames are sweeping over a wide area in Chippewa county. Last night they reached the city limits.

Bishop C. D. Williams, of the Episcopal diocese of Michigan, and Rev. W. E. Bulkley, who confirmed a confirmed a class in Hagensville, are missing.

Policeman Caught Bundle.

New York, Oct. 16.—Flames were shooting out of the upper story windows of a house on west Eighty-ninth street today when Policeman John Thompson dashed back from the alarm box. A frantic woman appeared at the third-story window holding a white bundle in her arms. "Catch her! save her!" she screamed. "Let 'er come," yelled Thompson all in a bunch, holding out his arms heroically. The woman tossed the blanketed form over the sill and screamed in suspense as she watched it fall lightly and safely into Thompson's sturdy arms. "Bless the little darling," said Thompson to Policeman Whiting, his partner. "I have one of them at home mesilf." "So 've I," said Whiting, "but mine is a bull terrier." And looking down Thompson saw protruding from the blanket the shiny black nose of a French poodle.

French Naval Disasters.

Paris, Oct. 16.—Responsibility for three years of almost constant naval disaster will be put squarely up to the ministry of marine at the next meeting of the French Chamber of Deputies, according to a semi-official announcement here today. The disaster to the submarine boat Fresnel yesterday, when it ran into a jetty in the port at La Rochelle and sank, has aroused the government to the necessity of a most searching investigation. The ministry of marine is accused of purchasing enormous quanties of material of inferior quality and there will be charges not only of incompetency, but of actual dishonesty on the part of at least subordinates in the department.

Trouble to be Adjusted.

Tokio, Oct. 16.—Japan and China, it was announced today, has reached a basis of settlement of the difficulty arising out of the recent clash between the Japanese garrison in Kantao, northern Korea and a company of Chinese marauders. Japan made a formal protest that the Chinese war office refused permission to the garrison soldiers to pursue the Chinese across the border. The basis of settlement was not made public, but it is said that the matter will be amicably adjusted.

Railway Bridge Blown Up.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 16.—The railway bridge over the Bosnia river at Vranduk, was blown up today, according to a dispatch to the Noveo Vremya. Serayevo, the capital of Bosia, is cut off by the destruction of the bridge. The dispatch does not place the responsibility for the act.

Abdication of King Peter?

London, Oct. 16.—King Peter has secretly abdicated the throne and fled from Servia, according to a report that reached London today. The report lacks verification, but all efforts on the part of Belgrade correspondents of London papers to find the king have proven fruitless. Even members of the national assembly and the king's cabinet profess ignorance as to his whereabouts.

Sofia, Oct. 16.—The Bulgarian capital is greatly excited today by the rumor that the cabinet, which is now in session, will issue a declaration of war against the Turks. The published programme for the Balkan conference has greatly aroused the people, and they are demanding that its terms be rejected and that no indemnity whatever be paid to Turkey as the price of their independence. The cabinet is in full accord with the people on this proposition, and this one phase of the situation, it is feared, will result in some overt act being committed by Bulgaria that will lead to war.

Vienna, Oct. 16.—The six Austrian warships that have anchored off Antivari, Montenegro, are cleared for action today, pending a reply to the Austrian demand for information concerning the report that the Montengerin parliament has voted an authorization to Prince Nicholas to declare war. The ships are at Spizza, in Dalamtia, a crown land of Austria, and within a few minutes' sailing distance of Antevaria.

Papers Served on Hearst.

Omaha, Neb., Oct. 16.—Ignoring the protesting screams of Mrs. William Randolph Hearst, who was disrobing for the night, a deputy sheriff smashed in the door of the editor's compartment of a Union Pacific train here at midnight and served him with papers of notification that a suit of $600,000 had been brought against him for slander and libel by Governor Charles N. Haskell, of Oklahoma.

Mrs. Hearst answered Stewart's summons from behind the locked door, and when ordered to open the door in the name of the law replied that Mr. Hearst was not in the room but had gone to file a telegram in the station. Stewart cried to her to open the door or he would smash it in. Mrs. Hearst screamed and pleaded, saying she was alone and getting ready to retire and would open the door for no man. Stewart then smashed in the door and brushing by Mrs. Hearst, presented his papers to the editor, who seemed much calmer than his wife. Hearst told the officer he had refused to admit him merely because he and his wife were retiring and thought such a method of serving him with papers an outrage.

Fleet Nearing Yokohama.

Tokio, Oct. 16.—Escorted by a large fleet of Japanese vessels, sixteen American battleships are rapidly nearing the harbor of Yokohama, where one of the greatest welcomes awaits them that was ever accorded a fleet, whether in alien or home waters.

The American fleet will, if its present speed is maintained, reach Yokohoma early Saturday morning, and from the hour of its arrival until the great white hulled sea fighters weigh anchor a week later, Yokohama first and then Tokio will be turned upside down in an effort to make the Americans think a little better of their "little brown brothers of the Pacific." While outwardly the visit of the American fleet is chiefly in the interest of international comity, Japan sees in it an occasion of the deepest political significance and she will not let the opportunity pass without attempting to strengthen the ties between the two nations, upon which Japan hopes shall devolve the guardianship of the Pacific's shores.

Baltimore and Ohio Railroad.

Baltimore, Oct. 16.—The eighty-second annual report of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company for the fical year ended June 30 last, shows a decrease in gross earnings of $8,635,140.33 from last year. The gross earnings this year were $73,608,781.21 Total expenses were $54,150,879.38, being a decrease from last year of $729,211.47. Net earnings from operation were $19,457,-901.83, a decrease of $7,905,928.89. The gross income was $23,812,645.22, a decrease of $7,586 201.90. President Murray briefly discussed the sudden change in business conditions during the year, and views the future as giving the cheerful promise of a full return of prosperity within the present year.

New York Stock Market.

New York, October 16—After the first few minutes the market became decidedly strong, several stocks scoring gains ranging from fractions to about one point. There was a fractional reaction before the end of the hour which left prices at the end of the hour slightly above yesterday's close.

Killed in a Riot.

Lisbon, Oct. 16.—Twenty-three persons were killed or mortally wounded and forty others seriously hurt today in a riot at Zamb-Azambuja between the monarchists and republicans during the municipal election primaries.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

That grave irregularities in the American management brought about the failure of the Pillsbury-Washburn Flour Mills Company, Limited, is the charge of the English committee of shareholders made in a circular just issued.

A dispatch from Berlin says practically no doubt remains today that the German balloons Hegersell and Plauen, which sailed Monday in the international endurance race, have fallen into the North sea and their pilots and assistants been drowned.

Two letters which passed between President Roosevelt and and Mr. Taft in 1906 touching Mr. Taft's choice between appointment to the Supreme Court bench and staying in the War Department, with the prospect of nomination to the presidency were published today.

While undergoing the tests at Aldershot England, today the British army aeroplane fell a distance of 20 feet and was destroyed. Col. Cody, the inventor of the machine, was badly shaken up by the fall. A breakdown of the motor caused the wreck.

Proceedings against Col. Wm. F. Tucker, now ill at the army hospital at Hot Springs, Ark., will not be pushed by his wife until his health has improved. The warrant against him charging him with wife desertion has been dismissed. Grand jury action will be the next step and it will be asked as soon as Mrs. Tucker and her mother, Mrs. John A. Logan, are assured that the action will not delay Tucker's recovery. Mrs. Tucker and Mrs. Logan will remain in Chicago until the case is heard.

The Yankee Abandoned.

Boston, Oct. 16.—The crew of the stranded cruiser Yankee, seven commissioned officers and 200 enlisted men, were landed at the Charleston navy yard today by the colliers Nero and Lebanon. The men will remain pending an official inquiry here into the mishap which probably lost to the United States navy a full fledged cruiser. Until the board of inquiry sits, none of the enlisted will be allowed ashore. Today they will be transferred from the colliers which brought them from the Hen and Chickens reef in Buzzard's Bay, the scene of the wreck, to the United States steamer Wabash.

U. D. C.

Upon the opening of the convention of the Virginia Division of the United Daughters of Confederacy at Manassas, yesterday morning, the reading of reports from the chapters forming the Virginia Division was continued. After these were finished reports from many committees were read.

The reports show the various chapters throughout the State to be in good condition, and are evidence of the splendid work that is being done by the organization in perpetuating the memory of the defenders of the "Lost Cause."

At 12 o'clock the election of officers for the ensuing term was taken up.

Mrs. Stone, of Texas, president-general, took the chair and announced that nominations for president were in order. The name of Mrs. Tate, the present presiding officer, was put in nomination, and she was unanimously elected.

The other offices were filled as follows: First vice president, Mrs. White, of Portsmouth; second vice president, Mrs. Griffin, of Bedford City; third vice president, Mrs. Meade, of Petersburg; fourth vice president, Mrs. Eller, of Lynchburg; recording secretary, Mrs. Black of Blacksburg; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Bosang, of Pulaski; treasurer, Mrs. Thornton, of Charlotte Courthouse; registrar, Mrs. Campbell, of Wytheville; historian, Miss Pendleton, of Lexington, and recorder of crosses Mrs. Alexander, of Alexandria.

At the afternoon session Mrs. A. J. Montague spoke in behalf of the Home for Needy Confederate Women in Richmond, and aroused considerable interest in this worthy object.

The excitement of the session came when a motion was made to fix Confederate Memorial Day on the 30th of May, the national Decoration or Memorial Day. The question called forth the liveliest debate and many interesting speeches, both for and against the motion, were made.

Upon a vote, the motion was lost by a large majority, and April 9th was fixed instead.

The night session was taken up in reading historical papers, all of them being interesting and instructive. The delegates will visit the battlefields today, and will be entertained at luncheon by the Groveton Chapter.

D. A. R.

The conference of Virginia Daughters of the American Revolution adjourned at Petersburg last night after electing the following officers: State Regent, Mrs. S. W. Jamison of Roanoke; vice state regent, Mrs. W. W. Harper, of Orange; state secretary, Mrs. A. H. Tuttle, of Charlottesville; state treasurer, Mrs. E. C. Hammer, of Lynchburg. Wytheville was selected as the place for the meeting next year.

An appeal was made for help to carry on the work of the conference among the children in the mountains. The state secretary was instructed to purchase a cot in Charlottesville for the University Hospital.

State Secretary Mrs. Albert H. Tuttle, in referring to her report of yesterday on the Manila tablet, erected by the Virginia Daughters in memory of the Virginia soldiers who had died in the Philippines, earnestly urged the state chapters to solicit donations of books for the Manila library.

At 12 o'clock the conference took a recess for the delegates to go on excursion to Old Blandford Church and the battlefield of the Crater.

THE AQUEDUCT BRIDGE.

Engineer Commissioner Morrow of the District of Columbia sees no occasion for alarm regarding the condition of the Aqueduct bridge. He says: "The bridge, in my opinion, is as safe as it has been in the last thirty years. Two new piers have been constructed recently, and in making an examination of the piers, it is doubtless the intention of Maj. Spencer Cosby, engineer in charge of the Washington Aqueduct, to recommend an appropriation for additional repairs to the structure.

Ely's Cream Balm has been tried and not found wanting in thousands of homes all over the country. It has won a place in the family medicine closet among the reliable household remedies, where it is kept at hand for use in treating cold in the head just as soon as soon as some member of the household begins the preliminary sneezing or snuffling. It gives immediate relief and a day or two's treatment will put a stop to a cold which might, if not checked, become chronic and run into a bad case of catarrh.

For this section fair tonight and Saturday; light winds, mostly southerly.

ST. MARY'S ALUMNAE.

Never since St. Mary's Academy left its birthplace on Fairfax street to occupy its present larger and more commodious quarters, has its stately halls resounded with the laughter and song of its many graduates as they did last evening on the occasion of the first annual banquet of St. Mary's Alumnae. Starting in a modest way but recently, the growth of the Alumnae has startled even its most ardent well-wishers, and the large attendance and unbounded enthusiasm of graduates last evening abundantly testified to its success and permanancy. The exercises were opened by a sketch given by this year's graduates, whose finished performance reflected great credit both upon the young ladies themselves and upon the thorough training in elocation for which the Sisters of the Holy Cross are noted. The play was followed by a business meeting, after which the graduates took ranks just as when they were pupils at the school and filed into the banquet hall, which, under the skillful direction of Samuel Bros, caterers, had been transformed "into a thing of beauty." Banners and streamers of various colleges were draped from the walls in graceful profusion, and the banks of palms and ferns formed a fitting background to the myriad lights, the beautifully decorated tables, and the happy, smiling faces of the graduates as they chatted of the old days at St. Mary's and made plans for the future while enjoying the sumptuous repast. When the meal was finished, Miss Sallie Harlow, the toastmistress, rapped the assemblage to order and in a few graceful sentences stated the object and propose of the Alumnae and extended a cordial greeting to the invited guests. She then introduced the first speaker of the evening, Miss Angela Nevitt, who responded to the toast "St. Mary's Alumnae," doing the subject ample justice. Miss B T. Greene followed, with the toast "St. Mary's Past," in which she interestingly reviewed the history of the school, and told many incidents of the earlier days. Miss Rose Crilly was heard to advantage in her toast "St. Mary's Present," which was greatly appreciated and loudly applauded. Miss Mary Nugent essayed the role of astrologer in which, in responding to the next toasts St Mary's Future," she cast the horoscope of the school in a pleasing manner. The toast-mistress next extended the greetings of the Alumnae to the class of 1908, whose president, Miss Ella Hill, responded in so splendid a manner as to make one of the distinct hits of the evening. The banquet was brought to a close by a graceful incident the presentation to sister in charge of a traveling bag as a slight token of appreciation for the great assistance rendered the Alumnae in making the affair a success. Great credit is also due Miss Mattie Crilly and Miss Sallie Harlow, who constituted the committee on arrangements.

MR. CATON'S CANDIDACY.

Mr. James R. Caton, of this city, as heretofore stated, has announced himself a candidate for the nomination as lieutenant governor in the next gubernatorial contest. When Mr. Caton retired from the last race in favor of Hon. J. Taylor Ellyson, four years ago, it was generally understood, that he had not abandoned his aspirations, but another time would enter the field again. In a letter he is sending to many of his influential friends throughout the state, Mr. Caton states his reason for withdrawing from the contest four years ago, and his intention of again being a candidate. His letter follows:

Alexandria, Va., October 10, 1908.

Dear Sir:—For some months past frequent inquiries have been made by my friends in the State, whether it was my purpose to be a candidate in the next gubernatorial contest for the democratic nomination to the office of lieutenant governor, and I feel that it is due I should respond to this inquiry. In the last gubernatorial contest I entered the race for this high office, but after my announcement the Hon. J. Taylor Ellyson, the present lieutenant governor, entered the contest, and feeling that; because of his long service as chairman of the state democratic committee, he had greater claims upon the consideration of the party, I felt constrained to withdraw from the race, and, so far as I was concerned, leave Mr. Ellyson an open field.

I beg to advise you that I have concluded to be a candidate before the next state democratic primary for nomination to the office of lieutenant governor. Begging to assure you of my sincere regard, I remain very truly yours,

JAMES R. CATON.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

A very pleasant evening was spent at the residence of Capt. and Mrs. V. A. Payne on upper Prince street last night, the occasion being the 15th anniversary of the birth of their daughter, Lizzie. Games and music were the features of the evening, after which the guests repaired to the dining room which was tastefully decorated and partook of a sumptuous repast. The hostess looked charming in pink silk princess, with ribbon and lace trimmings. The presents were numerous and beautiful.

HE GOT THE GUN.

A. J. Payne, constable and game warden of Mount Vernon district, Fairfax county, on Wednesday evening captured a big one pound ducking gun, near the dry marsh, below Gunston. The gun was in a skiff, loaded and ready for action and, it is said, bore evidence of having been used just previous to its capture. The gun was in the possession of William Shepperd when Constable Payne made his appearance and told Shepperd that he wanted the gun without trouble, but that if trouble must come, then it must Shepperd surrendered and helped the constable to take the gun from the skiff and land it. The gun has a history. It at one time belonged to a lawyer in this city, who sold it to some men living in lower Fairfax. While in illegal action in Maryland it was captured by the authorities of Prince George's county and sold at auction. It was purchased at the sheriff's sale by friends of the men from whom it had been seized and brought back to Fairfax county. It will now be destroyed under the law. Recently Constable Payne captured a ducking gun of similar size and make as the one described above and Magistaate Wright ordered its destruction. Sheppard heard of this and, it is said, sent word to Payne that if he came to get his gun he would get a load of shot. The constable waited his time then went, got the gun and the load of shot also, and had the assistance, though unwilling, of its owner in removing it from the skiff to the shore. The matter will come up before Justice Wright in a few days.

DEATH FROM HYDROPHOBIA.

About the first of last August a little colored boy, named Thomas Bailey, living at 1311 Queen street, was bitten by a dog which later developed symptoms of hydrophobia and was killed. The animal had previously bitten another canine, which was also dispatched. Three weeks later the child was taken to Dr. Penn for treatment. He found that the wound inflicted by the dog on one of the feet of the child had healed, but that he was suffering from erysipelas and he treated him for that disease. A few days ago the doctor called to see the boy and discovered that he was suffering from hydrophobia. Dr. Penn obtained the services of two specialists from the U. S. hospital service, who also pronounced it a genuine case of hydroprobia. The boy died in convulsions.

PREVENTED A BONFIRE.

Some boys living in the southeastern section of the city, fired by patriotism, proposed to make a bonfire on Windmill Hill last night. They invaded the yard of a recently vacated house and removed everything in the way of boxes, barrels etc., to the hill. Before the pile could be ignited the owner of the house compelled the boys to return the combustibles to the place whence they were taken.

A METAMORPHOSIS.

A building in the northwestern section of the city which has been used for a saloon almost from the time it was built was being utilized in the interests of a church this morning, a rummage sale being in full blast. ### A CONFEDERATE COIN.

A gentlemen of this city has in his possession a curiosity in the shape of a coin. The coin belongs to a resident of a neighboring county who values it highly. It is a half-dollar silver piece, similar to the United States coins of that denomination, except that the words "Confederate States of America" have been substituted for "United States of America," and a shield bearing seven stars and a liberty cap are on the reverse side. The coin bears the date 1861 and is said to be one of six similar pieces struck at the mint in New Orleans and made from the small amount of silver bullion left at the mint by the United States authorities when Louisiana seceded in 1861. The coin is perfect in every respect but some question has been raised as to its genuineness—any way it is a curiosity.

MOVING PICTURES.

At the Opera House last night the Two Frankfords entertained a large audience with their clever songs, dancing and monologues. Miss Margie Weissner, the clever little soubrette, also made a big hit. We understand from the manager of the Opera House that they are playing their capacity every night, and that they will spare no expense to give the public of Alexandria the very best acts in the vaudeville line.

At the Alexandria Amusement Company there will be an entire change of programme tonight, and, as usual, will draw an immense crowd. There was hardly standing room last night and the pictures were much enjoyed. "The French Friend," "Who is It?" "The Frightful Groom" and "Water Sports" will be shown tonight. They are first class.

A change in pictures at the Elite Motion Picture House tonight. Pictures very funny. Entirely new subjects. See advertisement.

Governor Haskell.

Governor Charles N. Haskell, of Oklahoma, may be "in bad" President Roosevelt, but his former fellow townsmen here today of Ottawa, Ohio, say he's all right with them. Haskell kept his promise to come back to his old Ohio home and defend the charges against him, and Wednesday a great audience packed the local theatre where Haskell appeared with former Senator Carmack of Tennessee. When Haskell was introduced, the crowd rose as one man and cheered the Oklahoma governor for several minutes. Contrary to expectations, Haskell did not attack the president. His address was largely a discussion of campaign issues but he closed by explaining his attitude toward the Prairie Oil Company and the Indian land grant matters.

Mr. Bryan declared at Columbus, Neb., yesterday that the arguments raised against his guarantee of bank deposits plan by Judge Taft, Senator Beveridge and Gov. Hughes are "childish in the extreme." He said the same objection that is now made against guaranty of bank deposits was made against fire insurance when it was first suggested

Will Not Indorse Bryan.

No flat footed indorsement will be received by Mr. Bryan at the hands of the Ohio Federation of Labor in convention in Dayton, Ohio. That much is certain as the resolution committees time for receiving measures expired yesterday without a plain Bryan endorsement and resolution being filed. Instead, however, the committee will submit to the convention a resolution endorsing the political attitude of President Gompers.

Montross, the county seat of Westmoreland county, is to have a new bank, and the little brick building at one side of the courthouse green of the village is being converted into a bank building. The new bank will be one of a chain of new institutions of the kind that have been established in the country districts of Virginia along the Potomac in the past two or three years. The Virginia state corporation commission recently granted a charter to the Montross bank, with Dr. O. C. Mann, as president, Dr. R. H. Stuart, vice-president, and Mr. Carver secretary and treasurer

A writ issued by the United States Court in Pennsylvania, commanding Dr. R. E. Lamb, superintendent of the Matteawan Hospital for the Criminal Insane, to produce Harry K. Thaw at Pittsburg forthwith was served yesterday by a U. S. deputy marshal, who was waiting for the doctor at the railroad station Fishkill Landing, N. Y., when he stepped from an incoming train. Dr. Lamb has not yet reached a decision as to what action he will take.
